

The McCallum Residence

Matakana Region – North of Auckland

Nestled on your own private beach on the Clevedon Coastline, journey back in time to the elegance of country gentry life with all the luxuries of modern day living.

Escape to your own slice of paradise

Indulge yourself in the wealth of exclusive facilities and unwind in a private sanctuary. Built specifically for the McCallum family, the McCallum Residence has been lovingly restored from a historic homestead back into an authentic and luxury residence for discerning clientele. The antique and light filled spaces create a feeling of stepping back in time, with a combination of colonial New Zealand and the McCallum's Scottish heritage.

Relax at home or discover the region

You can do as little or as much as you like at the McCallum Residence. Clevedon and the surrounding region boast a renowned range of activities to choose from. If you want to unwind and relax, the grounds have everything you need for a tranquil day by the ocean. Kayak, fish, hang out in the hammocks with a book or round the family up for some lawn games and really make the day your own.

Celebrate at The McCallum Residence

With the additional boat shed, large outdoor dining area, picturesque gardens and private beach access, The McCallum Residence is perfect for celebrating with those that matter most. With ample space inside and out, the Residence offers privacy, space and luxury in equal measures.
