

Villa Rahimoana
Bay of Islands, NZ

Our premier villa, Rahimoana's design is unparalleled in luxury, space and privacy. With soft shades of pale grey and white, Rahimoana epitomises the refined elegance of modern minimalism. With a dramatic aerofoil copper roof floating above three-meter sliding glass walls, Rahimoana offers 300 degree views of ocean, islands, sunsets and landscapes.

Rahimoana – Sun God Over The Ocean (Maori Translation) Four superb bedrooms with ensuites flank the generous living and entertaining space. All have jaw-dropping views flowing seamlessly across granite balconies surrounded by lush beautifully-landscaped grounds. The ever changing ocean and sky, sunsets, sunrises, abundant wildlife, with the sounds of rolling waves from your private beach hints at why Rahimoana is a world class holiday villa. Drenched in all day sun, this stunning villa sits on 44 acres of private headland with panoramic views of New Zealand's famed Bay of Islands. With over a kilometer of beach and ocean frontage overlooking deep water anchorage this iconic, one of a kind masterpiece also features a 25 meter infinity pool, a helipad and acres of pristine private land and native bush. There is a gymnasium, sauna, office, service area, and wine cellar enabling large scale and intimate entertaining with family, friends or business associates.

There is nothing in the world like Rahimoana for those who aspire to holiday or celebrate any special occasion in a villa that is a spectacular work of art. From the water, it appears hunkered into the hilltop as if it was always meant to be there. This magnum opus boasts multiple indoor-outdoor living and lounge areas perfectly complementing the subtropical climate and breathtaking world class vistas.
